VETERANS ADVISE GRADUATES -

DANCE A SUCCESS!

Last Saturday night, October 16, "would be hayseeds, and the potential farmers group", met for a real old fashioned barn dance. Under the glowing influence of the un-spiked apple cider and doughnuts, the plaid shirted, and blue jeaned couples, skipped, ran, jumped and crawled around our "farm decorated" gymnasium, to the tune of Turkey in the Straw. Dunking for apples was a favorite pastime among the farmers, while the farmerettes went for the apples on the string in a big way. To top off a wonderful evening a very good square dance orchestra from Somerville provided the music.

QUEENS PLAYERS

The Queens Players of Rutgers University will open their new season with a double bill; Eugene O'Neill's "In the Zone", and Bernard Shaw's "Androcles and the Lion". These will be presented Nov. 18, 19, and 20, at 8:30 p.m. in the Roosevelt Junior High School. The other two plays that will be presented during the season are; Harry Brown's "Home of the Brave", and Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night". Season tickets, a $3.60 value for only $2.00, are available at the Student Union, 38 College Avenue. Tickets for the individual productions will be available for $1.20.

GOT YOUR DATE

FOR THE FALL FORMAL?

SERVICE OR COLLEGE?

In various issues of the Argo we are going to ask questions of the students here at Prep. In this way we will be able to see what Prepsters think about various things of interest. This week our question is: "After your experience in the armed forces, would you advise the members of the senior class to enter service immediately after graduation, or to enter college and wait to be drafted". This question was asked only of veterans. Of the seven veterans approached, 4 were in favor of going into the service, and 3 for going to college.

1. Ed Ostrowski--I would advise that they enter the service and get it over with, for if you entered a college now you probably would be drafted.
2. John Hess--I think that for the average student it would be wiser to enter college after graduation from Prep School.
3. Jim Moran--I didn't have much of a choice a few years ago, but I would still rather enter the service and be done with it.
4. Ed Orłowski--Go into the service and get it over with. Being a veteran, I know what went on and would recommend it to those who are in the same boat.
5. Dick Gumerlock--I believe it would be better to enter the service and be done with it. Then your college education will not be interrupted. See page 3.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

So that you will have a chance to submit new ideas, add information as a follow up on articles, congratulate or condemn us, we are starting a "Letters to the Editor" column. We hope that you will support this column for it will add to your interest in the paper. To start off our new section here is a recent letter received from the upper floor residents of the Beta House:

Dear Sirs:

Regarding your article on "The Traps", your reporter made the statement that the Beta House was quiet this year. We may be few in number, but the statement that we are quiet is a gross misrepresentation of fact, as Mr. Blake and plaster on his floor will testify.

Yours, for more accurate reporting, D. M., B. D., A. A., H. M., J. H., and R. D.

Ed. Rep. Being rushed for space and time, the author of the article "The Traps", quite unintentionally cast a slur over the Beta House. However, to rectify the mistake, the Argo, if furnished with material from the house occupants, will publish an article devoted entirely to the Beta House, in our Nov. 13 issue.

THEATRE CLUB

In this paper, we of the Argo staff try to write articles that are timely, interesting, and not repetitious. Also, in our editorials we try to use the same policy. The editorial this issue has to do with an old standby at Prep, the Theatre Club. Last season the theatre club was discontinued for many varied reasons, however, this year we of the Argo would like to see it revived, for we feel that it adds a certain something to the school life that cannot be gotten anywhere else. I have spoken to Mr. Downie about a renewal of the theatre club, and asked him exactly what his opinion is. The following are his comments:

"You ask me about a theatre club! Well, I can't sing the praises of such an idea too loudly. I think every member of the student body should consider joining such a group. I feel the theatre has a definite part to play in one's education. Think how lucky we are to have the theatrical center of the world in our own backyard, so to speak. I always am thrilled when one of the great stage personalities steps out, and holds an entire audience, including myself, for an entire performance. That, my friends, is an experience never to be forgotten. If you have never seen a Broadway show, you have been missing plenty. Let's see if we can't revive the theatre club and make it possible for us once again to see the great shows on Broadway, as a group". Rather than write any more we feel that this past article has done sufficient. Now let's get out and organize a theatre club again.

NOV. 20-TH?

FORMAL DANCE NOVEMBER 20

This year as in previous years, the student council, in connection with the school faculty, is planning a formal dance. In the past the dance has been held late in November, toward the end of football season, and the same is true of this season. All the other formal dances have served as one of the school's main functions, and we will try to make this one, one of the best yet. Don't let down our record of having splendid turnouts, and wonderful times, by not attending. Everybody come!

GINELLO—ROSSI COACH JV'S

The J. V. football squad has been working very hard since the proper coaching staff was obtained. Although they went to practice at the beginning of school, the J. V.'s did not really learn football until they got the coaching of William Ginello and Frank Rossi, both Rutgers University students. The first week the J. V. team learned only the fundamentals, such as proper stance, pulling out of a line, etc.. The second week consisted of tackling and blocking. The more important work took place during the third week. They learned different plays, and the balance and unbalanced lines. The members of the J. V. squad are: in the line: Ray Henderson, Francis Stokes, Alan Cameron, Charles Tucker, Bernard Rineberg, Bill Cramer, Bob Lockhart, Hans deBlecourt, Richie Connolly, Bob Linn, Gene Ginsberg, and Irwin Roth. In the backfield: Ed Janata, Jim Allen, Jack Anderson, and John Edgar. Here's hoping that the J. V.'s will have as successful a season as the varsity are having.

6. John Garboski--I believe that seniors should go into college, but definitely!
7. Bob Hess--I don't believe in entering the service, I'm not planning to, anyway.

Well, there you have it. Next week you may be asked to answer our next question. Here it is so you can think it over. It will be asked of seniors only: "After graduating from Prep, do you plan to enter the service or college?"

PREPSTERS WIN OVER HUN AND PETERS

PREP-29

HUN-6

PREP-7

ST. PETERS-0

Before an enthusiastic crowd of 100, the maroon and white, defeated Hun School by a score of 29-6. The first touchdown occurred in the first quarter, when on five plays Prep advanced from their own 39 yard line to the Hun 2 yard marker. After being set back to the 7 yard line by an offside penalty, Dick Gumerlock went over for the first Prep tally. Bill Driscoll converted and made the score 7-0. At the beginning of the second quarter, Bob Buchfield of Hun threw a pass, but it was intercepted by John Garboski, who then went over for the second touchdown. Bill Driscoll again converted, and we went ahead 14-0. A tackle by Orlowski and Veros in the end zone ran the score up to 16-0. The next touchdown effected with comparative ease almost turned the game into an uninteresting show of power. But the kick was no good and the score remained 22-0. The last T. D. for Prep occurred in the third period. Prep however, did not escape unscathed on this one, and Frank Powell was carried from the field with torn ligaments in his knee. When Coach Housman put in his second and third teams, Hun marched 75 yards for their first and only touchdown. Their placement however was bad, and Prep won 29-6. Our hats are off to Gorman, Gumerlock, Driscoll, and Powell.

Rutgers Prep defeated St. Peters High School in a night game at the Municipal Stadium by a score of 7-0. On a mud soaked field, and without the able assistance of Dick Gumerlock, John Garboski, Ed Orlowski, and Charlie Papp, the Maroon and White brought the ball down into the end zone in the third period against a stubborn St. Peter's eleven, giving Prep its third consecutive victory.

The first half was played mostly in St. Peter's territory and many times in striking distance of a touchdown; but, the Cardinals' fighting qualities kept the ball from going over, and the first half ended with the ball in Prep's hands on the opponent's 12 yard line.

The Cardinals' kick off in the 3rd period was returned by Marty Waldman to his own 28 yard line. Prep then drove to their own 42 yard line and Lou Vasvary punted. With the ball in St. Peter's possession, Ed Ryan fumbled and Jim Efinger recovered the ball deep in Cardinal territory. A series of plays by Harry Veros, Marty Waldman, Tom Beaudette, and Karl Schreefer brought the ball down to the $\frac{1}{2}$ yard line. Then Schreefer sliced off tackle for the score. Bill Driscoll's conversion made it 7-0.

In the fourth period St. Peter's showed offensive power, but a fumble cost them their chance of scoring. The last part of the game was highlighted by St. Peter's aerial attack. The game ended with the ball in St. Peter's possession on their own 35 yard line.
