CUM LAUDE

No doubt all of you here at Prep have heard of Phi Beta Kappa. Just to refresh your memories, however, it is the highest scholastic college honor society in the world.

In high schools and preparatory schools there is a society almost identical to it, Cum Laude. Each year only the best students are elected as members. Usually these elections are held in early June, but this year there were two outstanding students who were elected only last week. We are sure that the whole school extends their heartiest congratulations to both Dave Wurtzel and Henry Vierling.

GLEE CLUB CONCERT

Hear Ye! Hear Ye! Come One!
Come All!

to the Spring Glee Club Concert Friday, May 6th, in the Prep School Gymnasium on George Street.

The Spring Program, which will appear in the next issue of the ARGO, will be basically folk music from early American days.

Last Monday a special rehearsal was held, and by the time May 6th rolls around, the Glee Club will surely be in exceptional voice.

Selections from this concert are to be repeated in Plainfield, May 20, in conjunction with the Hartridge School Girls' Chorus.

SPRING FEVER —

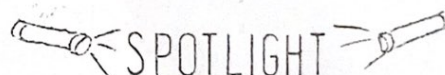

Having our editorials reflect the spirit of the times is sometimes a trial. Take this one for instance. It should be all broken out with bumps, or sprinkled liberally with red dots, in honor of some of the students who walk our halls. Annoying as these maladies may be, however, they have a perfect sense of timing. (They might have occurred over spring vacation.)

"Spring Fever", a malady most enjoyable to students, and most distressing to teachers, needs no introduction. Both its symptoms and cures are too well known for dissertation at this time. Lectures will be given shortly, and may do some one some good. But looking over past performances, it will not be the sufferers, for the record shows them immune to criticism.

SORRY, OUR ERROR!

In our last issue we wrote an editorial mentioning a dance committee that was being formed. In fact, we said that it would probably meet with the same success as other activities, NONE! We are very happy to report that we were wrong.

An informal dance is being scheduled for the 22nd of April, we hope that it will get the large turnout we now think it will. Let us all get behind the dance committee, NOW.

Tommy Beaudette, you are the next victim of the spotlight.

You know old Tom has seen quite a lot of old Rutgers Prep, for he lives right across the street from the boarding school. Aside from being a good football player, he is a gentleman and a scholar. This Prepster also has a sense of humor that the gals from N. J. C. just love.

Tommy is entering college next year, and we wish him lots of luck in everything. There is another thing that we wish. That Tom was a boarder, so that he could be on bounds once in a while. Keener, Powell, and Molskow get rather lonely all by themselves.

NOTICED: Dr. Macfarlan's advice, "Simmer Down".

PRESCRIBED: A "LAKE RUTGERS" for Mr. Shepard's new yacht.

SPRING FORMAL

— MAY 21

QUINN TOPS SCHOOL IN CURRENT AFFAIRS TEST

On April 3, the annual Time Current Affairs Test was given here at Prep.

The winners, announced the next day, receive their prizes at Commencement.

Walt Quinn, a junior, won the School prize with a 77. Bill Fairhurst won the Junior prize with a score of 71. Angelis Alexandris won for the seniors with a score of 69. The sophomore class scored so low that no prize is being awarded, however, the highest in the class was Dick Connolly. The freshman award was taken by Bernard Rineberg with a 63. Congratulations to the winners, who, it seems, read more than the comics.

Almost everyone here at Prep knows everyone else by name. We try to mention everyone (who deserves mention) as often as possible, for everyone likes to see their name in print. So read on and "meet", and get better acquainted with someone who may have the same interests as you.

One of the less "noisy" boys in school, who you photography or aviation enthusiasts ought to get to know, is Donald Cassady. He has done a great deal of work in the developing and printing of color film. As anyone who has done this will know, it takes a good knowledge of chemistry to get results. This is principally his summer hobby, for it takes considerable time and very steady, even temperatures.

As for aviation, Don has been up many times in light planes. He hopes to get the time to take flying lessons soon. Having a light plane in the family certainly encourages these ideas.

"COACH"

by

Jimmy Lamont

One of the favorite personalities at Prep is John Housman.

Aside from being Lord and Master of the Alpha House, he is as genial as it is possible to be. Some students might be opposed to his severity, but it would most certainly be those who deserved reprimanding.

Serving as coach of our football, track, and basketball squads, he has produced innumerable champions. Thus far this year both his football and basketball teams have been eminently successful. We sincerely hope that the saying of "good luck comes in threes" will bear true to form in this case.

In the classroom, as well as on the field, or in the gym, coach is fully equipped to master his problems. Not only does he instruct a student in algebra very well, but adds a touch of humor to the equations.

Even though, "Coach", John Housman is respected by all students, whether athletically inclined or not. He is surely one of Prep's most popular masters.

PREP OPENS SEASON AGAINST HIGHLAND PARK

VETERAN TRACK SQUAD MEETS NEWARK ACADEMY MAY 4

Prep's Track Team expects to maintain its athletic dominance over Newark Academy by winning its first meet of the season.

Coach Housman's veterans, led by Dick Gumerlock and Jim Efinger hope to make it three straight over the Newark squad.

The squad is divided into the sprinters represented by Gumerlock, Keener, Ohrbach, Cameron, Turdo, Lebow, Williamson, Stokes, Hess, and Danna. The distance men are: Efinger, Rovine, Eiseman, Kuhlthau, Powell, Waechter, Eckhardt, Wait, and Beaujon. The weight men are: Vasvary, Jensen, Allgair, J. Opdyke, Fedor, Moffitt, deBleecourt.

These track men hope to better last year's record of one defeat in five starts.

SEEKS INITIAL VICTORY AT JOHNSON PARK TODAY

Coach A. Z. Holley's baseball squad will start their 1949 season today against Highland Park High, in Johnson Park at 3:00 P. M.

The three members of last year's team, Powers, Beaudette, and Januszewski, will hold down infield posts. Dill, Anderson and Sullivan will also see infield duty. Either Johnson, Fox or Meschanic will pitch to Moran in today's opener. The outfield spots will go to three of these four candidates: Garboski, Driscoll, Tucker and Bitto.

The team has been practicing since before spring vacation. During the past several days they have had several exhibition games with the Rutgers Freshmen.

Coaches Holley and Roper expect a successful season and hope to start it off with a winner this afternoon.
