

THE WEEKLY ARGO

Vol. II, No. 1

Sept. 27, 1963

COUNCIL COMMITTEES ORGANIZE; FIFTY STUDENTS JOIN GROUPS

Student Council Committees came into the organizational stage on Thursday, September 26, when the Dance Committee, the International Committee, and the Volunteer Committee held a joint meeting in the large Publications Room. Student Council President Michael Jacobs and Council Vice President Carole Neivert called the meeting to order. Neivert then took charge of the Dance Committee while Jacobs assumed head of the Volunteer and International Fund Committees. Later, Michael Gottlieb, Council Secretary, will take over the running of this group.

Whereas the Volunteer Committee and the International Committee will not begin to actively work until next week, the Dance Committee held a meeting of its own immediately following the larger meeting. Neivert then told the group of the forth coming hayride, which will be held on Friday, October 18. The Dance Committee will also see to the details and planning of subsequent dances.

VARSITY CHEERERS CHOOSE AMY LEVY

by Doris Adler

The Cheerleaders of Rutgers Prep School have chosen a new member to round out the squad. On Tuesday, September 24, the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders of the 1962-63 squad competed to fill in the one vacant Varsity space. Amy Levy was selected by Mr. Richard O'Connell, athletic director, judged the competition. The Varsity Cheerleaders now include Captain Lynne Spiro, Doris Adler, Ruth Cassell, Vivian Czarda, Althea Davis, Edith Freedman, Amy Levy and Barbara Tomkinson.

The Cheerleaders have worked very hard practicing old cheers and developing new ones, and they will once again do their great job of providing inspiration to the players, of making a lot of noise, and giving the spectators something nice to look at.

Big Ben Pickar says:
"Let's beat Jamesburg." The only way you'll find out whether we win or not is to come to the game, at Prep's fields at three o'clock today."

Approximately fifty people attended the combined meeting and practically all of them expressed a desire to join two or more of the committees. In speaking to committee members, President Jacobs said that, "The success or failure of these committee ventures is entirely dependent on the attitude of the students participating on the committees. If some ability is mingled with some enthusiasm, then we can serve others as well as have fun ourselves."

PREP'S PRODIGY RALPH ROSENBERG

Ralph Rosenberg, editor-in-chief of the Argo, has reached the semi-finalist round in the competition for a National Merit Scholarship. The announcement was made Wednesday at assembly by Dr. Heinlein. Rosenberg is one of sixty-seven students in New Jersey to receive this distinction. He is also a member of the Cum Laude Society.

JAMESBURG HIGH WINS SOCCERAMA

by Bill Landau

Jamesburg High School was declared the winner of the first Twin County Soccer League Soccerama, which was held on Saturday, September 21 at Rutgers Prep's soccer fields. Rutgers Prep was third in the standings with four points, trailing East Brunswick, who had six, and Jamesburg, who had seven. Fourth place went to Edison High School and fifth place to Woodbridge. Each of these teams, Jamesburg, Edison, East Brunswick, Woodbridge and Prep, was to play one fifteen minute quarter against each of the other members with the winner receiving two points. For a tie, only one point would be received. At the end of four quarters, the team with the most points was to be declared the winner and receive a trophy.

All five teams showed a good potential in their playing ability. The Prep team, one of the higher ranking members of the league, ended the day with a record of one win, two ties and one loss. The win came in the first game against Woodbridge in which Bill Landau scored the winning goal. The next two games against East Brunswick and Edison respectively, ended in a tie. Prep had a good score up to this point with a good chance of taking home the trophy if it could beat Jamesburg in the next game. Prep lost that game by one to nothing on a goal scored in the final five minutes.

Even though Prep lost that last game, a lot of credit must be given to its players for their defensive play. There was only one goal scored against the team all day. This defensive game was led by one of the more experienced players, the goalie, Mike Jacobs, who played an outstanding game. Ed Huber also played a fine game. Prep did not win the soccerama, but the regular season has not yet begun and I am sure that with the team being able to rely on its defensive game, the offense will be able to be improved.

ARGONAUTS TOP WOODBIDGE, 4-0

by The Yak

The Rutgers Prep Varsity Soccer Squad opened its 1963 season Wednesday with its victory over Woodbridge High.

Varsity action saw Jim Gunkle lead the Prep scoring with two goals. Bill Landau, who scored the first goal of the game, and Ray Peachey rounded out the scoring with one goal.

Wednesday's game, though an easy win, proved to be one of the roughest games played on the new field. Both teams had several players shaken up or injured. Prep's biggest injury was incurred when Billy Landau scored in the early minutes of the first quarter. Landau, who twisted his knee on the play, may not see action for several more games.

Outstanding players of the day were center forward Ray Peachey and half back Tony Montagna. Peachey, a team veteran, turned in a stand-out performance. Montagna who saw limited Varsity action last year, proved a strong point in the Prep mid-field. He received strong help from his fellow half-backs, Ken Krafchik and Ed Huber, who played their usual fine game.

Two new comers to the Prep Soccer team also played fine games at wing. They were Pete Konowicz and Ed Gorchinski. Defensively the Pickar brothers, Ben and Dave, Bob Yacknowitz and Mike Gottlieb all played fine games at full back, giving goalie Mike Jacobs an easy day at goal.

THE WEEKLY ARGO

Vol. II

Sept. 27, 1963

Editor: Michael Jacobs '64

Asst. Editor: Patricia Welzel '64

Staff: Michael Miller '64, Beth Fishstein '65, Irene Rosenzweig '65, Russell Bey '64, Doris Adler '66, Robert Seidel '64.